MEN ADRIFT ON AIRBOAT FOR 18 HOURS

Rescued at Sea Off the Coast of Miami, Fla.,
By Steamer

CRAFT READY TO SINK WAS SURROUNDED BY SHARKS

Heavy Squall Raged and High Seas Were Breaking Over Plane

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
An Atlantic Port, May 9.—Their hydroairplane adrift at sea and in danger of sinking from a leaking pontoon, Ensign Arthur Laverents, naval aviator, and C. C. Cotton, observer were rescued by a coastwise steamship thirty-five miles off Miami, Fla., Monday afternoon and brought here today on the steamship. The men had been floating on the plane 18 hours without food or water after an engine breakdown which forced them to drop from a flight to the surface of the sea.

One of the pontoons of the hydroairplane sprung a leak during the hours riding the waves and the craft would not have remained afloat more than an hour after the rescue, the aviators said. Huge sharks added to their peril.

The captain of the rescuing steamship said that a heavy squall was coming up when the aircraft in distress was sighted and high seas had begun to break over it when his vessel came alongside. The pair were nearly exhausted although they remarked to quarantine officials on their arrival today that "all the damage we suffered was to our dispositions."

The hydroairplane, which weighs 2200 pounds, was hauled aboard the steamship and brought here with the aviators. At the quarantine station it was turned over to the care of a government guard ship which towed it to a naval base here. It was found to be very little damaged.

ADVISES HIGHER TELEPHONE RATE FOR OHIO TOWNS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, May 9.—Higher telephone rates for Ohio towns, where the cost of operation has become greater than the income, were advised by Frank L. Beam, of Mount Vernon, president of the Ohio Independent Telephone Association, addressing the annual association district meeting here today.

Mr. Beam urged members of the association to keep their equipment up to the highest possible standard as a means of helping to win the war. He also advocated the membership to ask for a fair rate and to give full publicity to their costs and expenditures.

The president's report showed that there are more telephones in use in Ohio than ever before, 770,669 instruments being used throughout the state.

C. Y. McVey of Cleveland, president of the Ohio State Telephone Co., made a strong plea for increased rates and indicated that unless rental revenues were increased largely within the next year, telephone companies may be obliged to establish a "waiting list" in all larger towns and cities.

SPORTING CLUB TENDERS DINNER TO AMERICANS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, May 9.—A dinner to 1,000 American naval and military officers and Y. M. C. A. representatives was given at the National Sporting Club last night. Vice Admiral Sims, commander of the American naval forces in the war zone, in reply to a toast declared that it was hoped that within the next fortnight the construction of new shipping would exceed the rate of destruction by German submarines. After the dinner guests witnessed a boxing exhibition between Jimmy Wilde, the featherweight champion and the veteran, "Pedlar" Palmer.

MANY NEW ENGLANDERS

Boston, May 9.—The names of 1195 New England men have appeared on casualty lists since American forces landed in France, a tabulation of reports from the front showed today. There were 293 deaths, 789 wounded, 20 missing, and six reported as prisoners.

BEFORE WAR LABOR BOARD.
Washington, May 9.—Difficulties of some stemming from the hat manufacturers at Danbury, Conn., and their employees, were taken up today by the national war labor board. The Danbury hat makers recently appealed to President Wilson for relief from conditions which they declared were intolerable.

SUGGESTIONS ON RAILROAD LABOR SITUATION MADE

By Railroad Wage Commission Which Recommends Increase

SEVERAL OF PROVISIONS BRING FORTH PROTEST

One That Increases of 1916
and 1917 Be Deducted
is Not Popular

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, May 9.—In recommending wage increase of $300,000,000 annually for all railroad employees whose wages were less than $250 a month in December, 1915, the railroad wage commission made several original and far reaching suggestions on the problem of railroad labor which attracted the close attention today of Director General McAdoo and other government officials.

Mr. McAdoo is expected to announce his decision on the recommendation in about ten days. There are indications that he will not accept them in their entirety. Some union officials already have expressed dissatisfaction with the amounts recommended for the men of their organizations, the increases ranging from 4.2 downward to 4.6 per cent. The highest paid men receiving the lowest increases and the averaging being 15.021 per cent. advance over the 1917 pay roll.

Perhaps the provision of the recommendation likely to encounter most strenuous objection is the one that all wage increases allowed by the roads in 1916 and 1917 shall be deducted from the amounts now to be given. The commission declared that its conclusions were based on a principle, which was that men were entitled to remuneration for the increased cost of living, and in basing its recommendations of the payrolls of December, 1915, in comparison with the present prices of necessities, decided that it would be unfair to allow certain employees who already had received wage advances, to benefit twice.

The commission declared in its report that reductions in hours are not to be regarded as increases in pay, a stand frankly at variance with high railroad officials.

Requests for an 8-hour day for all railroad employees and for time and a half for overtime were not acted on by the commission.

Officials of the wage commission pointed out today that the increases recommended are probably no greater than the railroads would have had to pay under private operation, since raising level of wages in other industries would have made them necessary, if the workers were to be retained.

Men who have left the railroads since January 1 to enter the army or navy are entitled to increases accruing up to the time they quit work, it was explained today.

Increases which would be allowed employees in train and engine service, most of whom are members of the four leading railway brotherhoods, it developed today are as follows:

Freight handlers fifteen per cent; Firemen and helpers thirty-four per cent; Freight conductors 20 per cent; freight brakemen and flagmen (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3.)

SHOT FIRED BY THE U. S. WARSHIP BROKE SUBMARINE IN TWO

An Atlantic Port, May 9.—The sinking of a German submarine by a United States warship with a shot which lifted the U-boat completely out of the water and broke her in two, was reported by officers of the ship on arrival here today. Because of the fine work of the gunners the crew of the ship was given an additional furlough of ten days.

On the voyage over the warship, previously reported from German sources as having been wrecked, sighted three submarines and the gunners sprang to their guns. The first two shots fired in quick succession at the nearest enemy missed, but the third went home. It caught the U-boat just below the water line and so great was its force that the craft was lifted out of the water and in another moment her back broken, she doubled up and sank to the accompaniment of yells from the warship crew.

No survivors were seen in the water and the other submarines as the destroyed submarine disappeared and did not reappear.

SUCCESSFUL OPERATIONS ON THE ITALIAN FRONT

London, May 9.—Two successful raids in the past week with the capture of a few prisoners and also several destructive artillery bombardments are recorded in an official statement issued last night on British operations on the Italian front. British aviators, it is added, since the last report have destroyed 17 hostile airplanes and lost none. Important military targets in the rear of the enemy lines were bombed effectively.

Huns Have Started Another Big Offensive On Flanders Front in Effort to Penetrate The Allied Center After Desperate Fighting

EVERYBODY IS EXPECTED TO CONTRIBUTE

HAS BROUGHT DOWN NUMBER OF GERMAN FLIERS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Paris, May 9.—Within five minutes on Tuesday sub-Lieutenant Nungesser, leading French aviator, brought down his 33rd and 34th German machines and damaged another which undoubtedly will be placed to his credit. On Sunday he knocked out two other enemy airplanes which have not yet been officially recorded.

Sub-Lieutenant Nungesser during three years of air fighting has been wounded 17 times and has served on 52 bombing expeditions.

French aviation has suffered a great loss in the death within a few days of three aces who among them had accounted for more than 45 Germans to his credit. He was killed on Tuesday, while sub-Lieutenant Demulder, with 13 victories, was killed in the region of the Somme yesterday. Captain Mierff met death while directing an infantry attack from a very low altitude. He was struck by a machine gun bullet fired from the ground.

SIX BIBLICAL EXPERTS HELD AS DRAFT FOES

New York, May 9.—Joseph F. Rutherford, successor to "Pastor" Russell as head of the International Bible Students' Association, and five other leaders of organizations founded by Russell were arrested in a raid by federal authorities on the headquarters of the Bible Students' Association in Brooklyn.

It is charged that the six men sought to bring about "mutiny, disorder and unrest" and to persuade men to refuse to enter military service by articles published in the Watch Tower, The Bible Student and The Kingdom News, organs of the Russell sect. The Kingdom News was suppressed by government agents last week.

ARE INVESTIGATING THE EXPLOSION OF A TRENCH MORTAR

Fort Worth, Tex., May 9.—Officers from division headquarters at Camp Bowie began an investigation this morning of the explosion of a trench-mortar yesterday afternoon which killed a lieutenant and nine enlisted men. Six others were wounded. The tenth victim—Private H. L. Davidson of Fort Worth—died today. Whether the shell was over-sized, whether the gun was jammed with another shell, or whether there was faulty construction somewhere will be developed. The English instructors at the camp are mystified by the explosion.

About a hundred shells had been fired from the gun when the explosion occurred.

The eleventh victim of yesterday's trench-mortar explosion died this morning. He was Private Alfred J. Woodie of Abilene, Tex., of headquarters company, 124th infantry.

TOOK PRISONERS AND MACHINE GUNS

Canadian Army Headquarters, May 9.—(By Canadian Press, Ltd.)—Strong raiding parties of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick troops entered the enemy outpost line early yesterday at Nuville-Vitasse, southeast of Arras. They inflicted many casualties on the Germans and took prisoners and two machine guns. Their losses were slight.

NEWARK SECURES THE OHIO REBEKAH ASSEMBLY

Springfield, Ohio, May 9.—Newark was selected for the 1918 meeting place of the Ohio Rebekah Assembly at the concluding session here today. Resolutions were adopted endorsing state prohibition, and pledging to the present, loyalty and support in the present war. The assembly also announced the purchase of $500 worth of Liberty bonds in the third drive.

SCARCITY OF FOOD REPORTED OVER AUSTRIA

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, May 9.—Further details of the critical food situation in Austria is given in statements of burgomasters published in the Vienna Neue Freie Presse, which were quoted in an official dispatch from Switzerland. The burgomaster of Innsbruck wrote that it has been impossible to obtain flour throughout the Tyrol except in Germany. Potatoes practically are unobtainable. Whole districts have been without bread for weeks.

The burgomaster of Klagenfurt said he did not know how sufficient food is to be obtained this month. Flour is almost entirely lacking while milk and potatoes are not to be found. Canned goods are entirely exhausted and he says the situation will be unbearable unless help arrives from Vienna or Germany.

"It is folly for the government to distribute food cards when nothing can be procured with them. This method will only succeed in driving the people to despair."

BAKER STATES 500,000 AMERICAN TROOPS IN FRANCE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, May 9.—Secretary Baker's statement announcing that his prediction that more than 500,000 American troops would be in France by early this year had even been surpassed, was widely discussed in congress today, where some members had been inclined to doubt the feasibility of the secretary's statement before the senate military committee in January. How many more than 500,000 have been sent abroad may not be disclosed for military reasons, and in making his statement, Secretary Baker specifically requested that it be carried to the public in exactly the terms in which he gave it. Under these circumstances it permits of no amplification. Neither is it possible to state how many troops actually have been transported during the first four months of the calendar year 1918, as this would disclose to the enemy the rate at which troops are moving.

HEAVY CASUALTIES INFLICTED ON THE ENEMY BY BRITISH FORCES AND LATTER WERE PRESSED BACK AT ONE POINT WHERE TERRIFIC FIGHTING CONTINUES

HOSTILE RAIDS REPULSED IN SEVERAL SECTORS; PROGRESS MADE BETWEEN SOMME AND ANCRE

Number of Prisoners Captured In Local Fighting While Our Artillery Fire With Infantry Fighting Mowed Down the Enemy—Germans Are Attempting to Drive Allies Back Toward the Kemmelbeek River, Hoping, to Outflank the Heights Running West From Mount Kemmel—Big Guns Roaring Without Cessation Along All the Army Fronts

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, May 9.—By a counter-attack delivered last night by British troops the Germans were driven from the portions of the allied front line they had entered on the Flanders front in the La Clytte-Voormezeele sector, the war office announced today.

Further progress was made last night by the British on the front east of Amiens between the Somme and the Ancre rivers.

Yesterday's attack on the Flanders line was carried out by two German divisions. Heavy casualties were inflicted upon them by the British forces.

A new German attack was made this morning on the Flanders front north of Kemmel. The enemy pressed back the British line at one point.

The statement follows: "This morning the enemy again attacked north of Kemmel and succeeded in pressing back our line slightly at one point, where the fighting continues."

"Troops of two German divisions took part in the enemy's attack yesterday morning. Heavy casualties were inflicted on them by our artillery fire, as well as in infantry fighting, both during the attack and in the subsequent counter-attack."

"Local fighting took place also yesterday at Buquoy in the course of which we captured thirty prisoners."

"During the night further progress was made by us between the Somme and the Ancre. Our new positions in this sector were improved. Several prisoners were taken by us."

"Hostile raids were repulsed in the neighborhood of Lens and Morris. The enemy's artillery developed considerable activity during the night in the Albert sector."

ARTILLERY BOOMING ALL ALONG THE ARMY SECTORS.
(Compiled from A. P. Dispatches.)

Heavy fighting, although on a comparatively narrow front, is continuing in Flanders, where the Germans began yesterday another attempt to drive a wedge into the entente lines and outflank the hill positions southwest of Ypres.

This attempt failed and only a temporary success was secured by the enemy in gaining a foothold in the allied front line at points between Voormezeele and La Clytte.

Last night the British and French drove back sharply at the German and ousted them from the small bits of territory they had won. Heavy casualties were inflicted on the two German divisions which were engaged in this operation.

Notwithstanding their heavy losses, the Germans seem reluctant to abandon the effort and this morning found them renewing the attack to the north of Kemmel, in the Voormezeele region. A heavy machine gun fire forced the British line back at one point, but the recession was slight and the ground remained in Allied hands. The fighting was continuing here when the report from British headquarters was dispatched.

The British are continuing to improve their positions in the Somme region of the high ground between the Somme and the Ancre. Further progress was made there during the night. There was local fighting in the Buquoy region, between Albert and Arras and south of the Somme the heavy artillery fire that has been reported for some days past continued on the French front on both sides of the Ancre.

In Flanders the Germans have returned to the attack, but apparently only in a strong local attempt to outflank the positions of Loere, Scherpenberg and Mont Rouge which they were unable to take by a frontal operation. While this may be the beginning of another furious battle on the sector where the enemy met disastrous defeat ten days ago, indications are that the attack is not very great, although the fighting is intense.

Pushing against the Anglo-French forces on a five mile front between Voormezeele and La Clytte the Germans gained the allied front in the center but were repulsed elsewhere, the French even making a slight advance of their own south of La Clytte. In the center the allied troops continue the fighting in an effort to throw the Germans out of the advanced positions they captured.

Seemingly the Germans are attacking in the hope of driving the allies back toward the Kemmelbeek River and its branches or beyond Poperinghe and thus outflank the heights running west from Mount Kemmel. Very heavy losses were inflicted on the enemy in his previous strong effort to penetrate this line and the line about Loere and its adjoining hills. It may be the attack is only a mask for a stronger one elsewhere, although to break through the Voormezeele-Loere line might be of marked advantage to the enemy.

Elsewhere in Flanders and in Picardy the infantry has been inactive. The big guns, however, are roaring without cessation, especially north and south of the Ancre east of Amiens. Aerial fighting is most active and in a big air battle near Douai British aviators brought down eight of the enemy without any losses.

MEN RESCUED FROM CAVE-IN 100 FEET
BELOW THE SURFACE
New York, May 9.—Eight laborers who were imprisoned for six hours in a tunnel 100 feet below the surface, following the cave-in of a subway excavation at Flatbush avenue, Brooklyn, late last night were rescued early today but no hope is held for four fellow workmen, also trapped in an adjoining section of the subway.

The rescued workmen were kept alive by means of compressed air forced through pipes which had been sunk from the street to the tunnel. Hundreds of laborers, assisted by firemen worked frantically in relays to rescue the men, who were in good physical condition when released.

The accident occurred, it is said, when a loosened timber, which six of the men had started to repair snapped and hundreds of tons of earth and rock poured upon them. The cave-in completely blocked the tunnel and imprisoned the eight others in a partly timbered section about 30 feet long and seven feet high.

As soon as the eight men were rescued the work of attempting to locate the bodies of the other workmen was commenced. Public service officials declared there was virtually no hope of finding them alive.

ASKED TO ABANDON WEARING OF FLOWER ON MOTHER'S DAY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Philadelphia, May 9.—Next Sunday—"Mother's day" throughout the civilized world—will be, in reality, a mother-and-son day for the United States and the nations associated with her in the war, for those who inaugurated the annual observance have sent out a widely-circulated appeal for "war-time" modification in the celebration of the day this year.

"Boys" and "girls," old and young, are asked to abandon the custom of wearing a white carnation as a part of the annual tribute to "mother."

An interchange of letters between homes "over there" and "the boys over there," as well as those serving with naval forces and in training camps in the United States, and the entertainment in homes of all enlisted men, are means of observing the day which are urged as substitutes for the wearing of flowers.

"Write home, if absent; stamp the day with kindness; write a letter of praise, cheer and confidence to the boys in the camps; show honor and gratitude to the nation's mothers, especially those who have given their sons to their country. These are ways of celebrating Mother's day this year on which special emphasis is laid."

Hair Often Ruined By Washing With Soap

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps are preps of alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulsified coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified coconut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

OHIO SELECTS ARE TAKING OUT WAR INSURANCE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, Ohio, May 2.—Practically every one of the 42,000 Ohio and western Pennsylvania selects at Camp Sherman have taken out $10,000 worth of the government's war risk insurance, according to announcement made today by camp authorities. This record is said to compare more than favorably with other national army cantonments.

To date 46,979 policies have been written at Camp Sherman for a grand total of $129,871,760. All but 35 of the 700 men received here in the last increment of the first draft three or four weeks ago have taken out insurance and already more than half of the 8,000 men received during the past two weeks have obtained government policies.

Personnel officers explained today that men holding government war risk insurance will be aided by the government, through the treasury department, in rehabilitating themselves after the war or in case they are injured.

Men so badly injured that they cannot earn a living at their old trades or profession after leaving the hospital will be sent to government rehabilitation schools, which will be established in various parts of the country. They will be taught to work at which they can earn a living despite their injuries. Such aid will be given only to men unable to earn a livelihood.

So many of Camp Sherman's soldiers have been found absent from camp without leave recently that the authorities announced today that heretofore summary punishment will be given such cases.

DEMAND RECALL OF FRENCH AMBASSADOR

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Moscow, Saturday, May 4.—The recall of Joseph J. B. E. Noulens, the French ambassador is demanded by Foreign Minister Tchitcherine because of statements said to have been made by the ambassador.

The statements made by M. Noulens, "as the note from the Soviet foreign office, 'in the tragic days of Russia's living wrongs hardly can be conducive to friendly relations between the French and Russian peoples. The representative of the French government is aggravating the relations between France and Russia and cannot be tolerated within the limits of the Russian republic. 'The government of the Russian federated socialist republic expresses the conviction that M. Noulens be immediately recalled by the government of the French republic.'"

Ambassador Noulens, a dispatch from Moscow dated April 25, says, had declared a few days previously that Germany was trying to gain economic control of all Russia and if the allies, in response to that menace, were forced to take military action it would be friendly assistance without thought of conquest or interference in the internal affairs of Russia. Foreign Minister Tchitcherine in a statement in reply, the same dispatch said, asserted that such assistance was not desired by the Russian masses who would regard it as an armed invasion."

TWO SMALL BOYS SAVED THE TRAIN

Shenandoah, Pa., May 8.—John McDonald and Martin Monaghan, each about 10 years old, are entitled to Carnegie medals for saving a train filled with passengers on the way to this city from plunging down a steep embankment at Lost Creek, on the Shenandoah branch of the Philadelphia & Reading Railway yesterday afternoon.

The boys were playing near the tracks when they discovered a broken rail and about the same time heard the whistle of a passenger train which was thundering along at high speed. The little fellows acted quickly. Monaghan took off his red sweater and McDonald his coat, and both ran ahead and succeeded in flagging the train before it reached the broken rail.

The boys were showered with congratulations by Engineer Benardier, Conductor Case and the grateful passengers, who filled all the little fellows' pockets with coins.

WILL NOT EFFECT THIS MONTH'S QUOTA

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Columbus, May 9.—The proposal in congress not to give credit for volunteers in fighting draft quotas applied only to the future and will effect in no way the quotas announced for May 27, movement of selective service men. In the opinion of Major W. S. Pealer, of state draft headquarters. These quotas gave credit for enlistments and voluntary inductions between July 1 and March 31.

If every cloud has a silver lining it's no wonder some people are always up in the clouds.

WOMEN GIVE OUT

Housework is hard enough when healthy. Every Newark woman who is having backache, blue and nervous spells, dizzy headaches and kidney or bladder troubles, should be glad to heed this Newark woman's experience:

Mrs. Chas. Gartner, 131 S. Second St., says: "About a year ago my back gave me a great deal of trouble. I couldn't sweep my house, wash or iron but what I suffered severely from dull pains across the small of my back. I often had to go and sit down and leave my work undone. Another of the family had been helped so much by Doan's Kidney Pills that I bought some at Evans' Drug Store. They benefited me right from the start and I kept on using them until they cured me completely."

(Statement given September 15, 1914.)

LASTING RESULTS.

On February 7, 1917, Mrs. Gartner said: "I gladly praise Doan's Kidney Pills again. The cure they made for me when I was suffering from kidney trouble has been permanent."

TELLS DYSPEPTICS WHAT TO EAT

Avoid Indigestion, Sour Acid Stomach, Heartburn, Gas On Stomach, Etc.

Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble, say medical authorities, are due nine times out of ten to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach. Chronic "acid stomach" is exceedingly dangerous and sufferers should do either one of two things.

Either they can go on a limited and often disagreeable diet, avoiding foods that disagree with them, that irritate the stomach and lead to excess acid secretion or they can eat as they please in reason and make it a practice to counteract the effect of the harmful acid and prevent the formation of gas, sourness or premature fermentation by the use of a little Bisurated Magnesia at their meals.

There is probably no better, safer or more reliable stomach antacid than Bisurated Magnesia and it is widely used for this purpose. It has no direct action on the stomach and is not a digestant. But a teaspoonful of the powder or a couple of five grain tablets taken in a little water with the food will neutralize the excess acidity which may be present and prevent its further formation. This removes the whole cause of the trouble and the meal digests naturally and healthfully without need of peptic pills or artificial digestants.

Get a few ounces of Bisurated Magnesia from any reliable druggist. As for either powder or tablets. It never comes as a liquid, milky or citrate and in the bisurated form is not a laxative. Try this plan and eat what you want at your next meal and see if this isn't the best advice you ever had on "what to eat." Advertisement.

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours.

Every druggist in this county is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer in this vicinity that if two bottles of Allenru, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not stop all agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenru has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and pitiable and where the patient was helpless. Allenru relieves at once. Immediately after you start to take it the good work begins. It searches out the uric acid deposits, dissolves the secretions and drives rheumatic poison out of the body through the kidneys and bowels. It's marvelous how quickly it acts. Blessed relief often comes in two days and even in cases where the suffering is most painful all traces disappear in a few days.

Mr. James H. Allen, the discoverer of Allenru, who for many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenru decisively conquers this worst of all diseases, and he has instructed Evans' Drug Store to guarantee it in every instance.

DISSATISFACTION IS ARISING IN GERMAN OFFICIAL CIRCLES

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

London, May 9.—Former influential officers in the German army, supporters of Von Moltke, the former chief of staff, are agitating against Field Marshal von Hindenburg on the ground that the German successes on the western front have not reached expectations, according to reports in The Hague, transmitted under reserve by the correspondent of the Daily Mail.

Another report, while according to the correspondent, appears to have some foundation in that a sharp conflict of opinion has arisen between Field Marshal von Hindenburg, General Ludendorff and the crown prince on one side and Chancellor von Hertling and Foreign Secretary von Kuehlmann on the other. The emperor, after considerable wavering, is said to have inclined to Von Hertling's side, although hesitatingly.

Milady's Boudoir

The Beautiful Foot.

Very low heeled footwear is fatal to the beauty of foot, instep and ankle. A woman's foot requires some support under the bones of the arch which are more delicately adjusted than the bones of a man's foot. So women should wear a moderately high heel on all of her boots, shoes, slippers and boudoir mules from girlhood to old age. If she desires to retain an arched instep, a trim slender ankle and a sprightly step.

Some women who are very proud of their feet, never wear slippers at all out of their bedroom or occasionally with a dinner gown. For walking, dancing and standing about in formal costume, button boots that support the ankle are donned. The high buttoned boot now so fashionable, comes in many fetching styles and shapes to suit every need of the days occupation with correct yet comfortable footwear.

The feet should be bathed in hot water at night and dipped in cold water in the morning, to keep the flesh firm and resistant. Feet bathed only in hot water are apt to be soft and flabby, and easily acquire corns and calloused flesh.

Once a week rub the soles with half a lemon, then rub a little vaseline into the skin with a ball of the hands. Callous places should be kept down with a bit of fine sandpaper or a manicure file, but the foot treated to a dash of cold water once a day and rubbed with vaseline and lemon once a week, will not likely be troubled with callous places.

The toes may be massaged at the tips to keep them tapering and supple, and the nails may be treated like the nails of the fingers, a bleach being applied with an orange stick under the rounded edges of the nails and the cuticle being pushed back carefully to curve at the base of the nails.

Our Boys and Girls

When it is time to feed the baby, take the cold bottle from the ice and place it, still corked, in a vessel of warm water, having the water cover the bottle above the milk line, and then allow the water to heat. Do not allow it to boil as that will make the milk too hot.

To test the temperature of milk, open the bottle and drop a little on the inner surface of your arm. If it feels comfortably warm on the mother's skin, it will be about right for baby. If it has become too hot, cool the bottle under the running water. The mother should never put the nipple in her mouth to test the temperature of the milk, as an infection, such as a cold, might easily be conveyed in this way to the baby.

Every Day Etiquette

"Will you please tell me the proper way to eat a sandwich at a luncheon?" asked June.

"The most delicate way is to use a knife and fork. It is perfectly proper, however, to cut the sandwich in small pieces and eat these from the fingers," answered her mother.

Schick-Schmutz.
The marriage of Miss Beatrice Schmutz and Mr. Frank Schick was solemnized this morning at the parsonage of the East Main street U. B. church, Rev. A. B. Cox officiating. It was witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Parker. Mrs. Schick was formerly Miss Beatrice Schmutz, a clerk at the Kresage company. Mr. Schick is a soldier and is stationed at Camp Johnston, Jacksonville, Fla.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride.

ORGANIZED IN 1776
MINUTE MEN DISBAND

Company With Long and Distinguished Record in American Wars Disbanded.

A military organization that was organized in Virginia a few weeks after the declaration of independence, in 1776, passed out of existence when three Virginia infantry regiments were consolidated to form the new One Hundred and Sixteenth Infantry. This organization was formerly known as the "Culpepper Minute Men," and was organized in Culpepper county, Virginia, in 1776, by John Jameson, the first captain. Jameson, who was later a colonel, will be remembered by schoolboys as the American officer before whom Major Andre was taken for examination after he had been arrested following a conference with Benedict Arnold. The company served with distinction throughout the Revolutionary war, as history shows, and from the time it reported to Governor Patrick Henry, at Williamsburg, in 1776, until the present, its members have had a share in every war in which the United States has been engaged. At the time of its absorption by the new One Hundred and Sixteenth Infantry it was known as Company B, Second Virginia Infantry. The records of the company show that Chief Justice John Marshall served with the Culpepper Minute Men as a private during the Revolution.

WOMAN, 85, TAKES UP CLAIM

Mrs. Malinda Franklin Enlarges Her Cattle Ranch in Montana.
Instead of sitting on a front porch knitting, as most women of her age do, Mrs. Malinda Franklin, eighty-five years old, recently came to Billings, Mont., and filed on an additional homestead of 160 acres.

Six years ago she filed on 170 acres in Carbon county. She still lives on that place, raising live stock. The tract which she recently filed on adjoins her original filing.

"I do not think much of grain," Mrs. Franklin said. "I've got a nice bunch of calves. They're getting big and I need more pasture to keep them until they are grown."

WOMEN SUFFERERS MAY NEED SWAMP-ROOT

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney and bladder trouble and never suspect it.

Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

Pain in the back, headache, loss of ambition, nervousness, are often times symptoms of kidney trouble. Don't delay starting treatment. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a physician's prescription, obtained at any drug store, may be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

Get the medium or large size bottle immediately from any drug store.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention the Newark Daily Advocate.—Advertisement.

FILM SPREAD OVER WATER

Thin Sheet on Surface Has Properties That Are Very Like Those of India Rubber.

It seems not to be generally understood that the surface of all water is covered by a film of the water itself, which in its action is not unlike that of a thin sheet of India rubber, says Edward Bigelow, the scout naturalist, in Boys' Life. To comprehend this one must imagine the rubber to be so thin as to be transparent. The surface of the water itself is elastic and under tension, so that a needle, though heavier than the water, may be floated on the surface.

Several interesting experiments may be made with the elasticity of this film. One of the best is to place two slender splinters of wood side by side on the water. Now drop a little alcohol between the splinters. This alcohol will immediately break the surface film between the splinters, and the pulling force of the remaining film, since there is nothing between them to hold them, will cause the splinters instantly to fly apart.

Another interesting experiment is to whittle a thin, slender splinter, pointed at one end somewhat like a boat. Place a tiny bit of gum camphor on the rear of this splinter and the gum will destroy the surface film so that there will be no pull in the rear. As there is a pull in the front not balanced by one in the rear, the tiny boat will run forward as rapidly as the camphor can dissolve the film in the rear.

Some interesting little "magic" tricks might be developed from these experiments which would surprise and instruct your friends.

ODIUM ATTACHED TO CARD

Numerous Explanations as to Why the Nine of Diamonds Is Called the Curse of Scotland.

While the nine spot of spades is looked upon as a fatal and vindictive card in the trying of fortunes, it is the nine of diamonds that bears the odium of being called the curse of Scotland. All writers agree on the card, but as to the cause of the stigma attached to it there is a diversity of opinion and it is difficult to decide which of the many theories is correct. One theory is that after the Culloden struggle the duke of Cumberland picked up a nine of diamonds from the floor and wrote on it an order for the death of the insurgents. To clinch this argument, it is declared that the identical card is preserved at Salinas castle, Aberdeenshire. Another explanation was that a Scotch member of parliament, a part of whose family arms was the nine of diamonds, once voted for a malt tax for his country. Still another view is that diamonds represent royalty and every ninth king of Scotland having been a tyrant and a curse furnishes the key to the mystery. One writer explains it by stating that the last queen of Scotland taxed her subjects heavily to pay for nine jewels for her own adornment. The "last queen of Scotland" in her own right was poor, pretty Marie Stuart, against whose memory has been tossed the mud of countless accusations by her bitter critics, and she might as well bear the nine of diamonds slander along with the others.

"Flapdoodle" Universal.

Roosters have used it simply and ingeniously, but by mankind it has been raised almost to the level of an art and it has been extensively used from long before the days of Solomon for purposes of evasion, promotion, argument and self-advancement. There is scarcely a department of human activity that is free from it. It is a rhetorical device that is liberally and shamelessly used by the lover, the business man, the professional man, the society woman, the critic and the craftsman, and even the clergyman has been known to descend to its employment upon occasion. The routine evidences of flapdoodle in ordinary intercourse are innumerable, but in its most highly cultivated forms it is found in art, literature, criticism, politics and statecraft. It is the most common commodity in the world, and about the most serious.

Not All Love Silence.

Dr. A. A. Brill of New York tells of a musical genius who complained of insomnia, which he maintained to be due to street noises in the city and cricket and night calls in the country. Many persons who become hypersensitive to noises blame their troubles on the sounds. This very patient could listen with rapture to music and yet believe that noises kept him awake!

Some of the greatest apostles of silence have shown themselves in need of noise. For example, John Stuart Mill, who was an enemy of all noise, hired a boy, according to Doctor Brill, to beat a drum next to the room in which he worked in order to stimulate his thoughts.

Spiders Ride on Back of Flies.

There is an aspect of spider and fly relations which fabulists and naturalists alike have overlooked. A correspondent who has brought the microscope to bear on many houseflies finds that the parasite upon that hateful insect is often an immature spider. Too weak yet to spin its web it makes the fly its winged palfrey, and courses from place to place at the will of its captive; either until Pegasus perishes naturally, or presumably until the rider is able to make a meal of his charger. This, if confirmed, seems to carry us a step further in the study of parasitism and commensalism.—London Chronicle.

Executive ability consists of a little more than merely pressing a button.

THE TRAIN THAT SAVED
A NATION

How the Red Cross Helped Roumania.

Have you heard of what happened in Roumania when that stricken nation stood in rags and starving before the shocked eyes of the world? We had thought ourselves grown used to tragedies until this greater horror struck a blow that roused still untouched sympathies.

And yet we felt so helpless, you and I, so terribly weak in our ability to offer aid. But were we? After all, were we not the very ones who carried new life and hope to the heart of Roumania? You shall be your own judge.

Fighting with the desperation of despair, the shattered Roumanian army still struggled to beat off the Kaiser's bloody Huns, who were mercilessly trampling the life out of the little kingdom. And the Kaiser smiled brutally as he saw his wolves at work, attacking the fighting men of Roumania from the rear, entering the homes where mothers clung to the frail, distorted forms of their babies—was slain.

No country around Roumania could help her—and America was too far away. Thousands would die before supplies held in our own country could be sent her.

Hope was gone. Death by hunger and by the dripping sword of the Kaiser was closing in. A brave little nation was being torn to pieces.

Then came the miracle. One morning the streets of Jassy, the war capital of Roumania, swelled with sounds of rejoicing. A city where the day before there was heard nothing but the wails of the starving and the lamentations of those mourning their dead now was awakened by shouts of joy.

You, my friend, you who have helped in the heroic work of the American Red Cross, had gone to the rescue of Roumania. A train of 31 big freight cars packed to their utmost capacity with food, clothing and medicine, tons upon tons of it, had arrived in Jassy after making a record breaking trip from the great store houses of the American Red Cross in Russia. Other trains followed it; thousands were fed and clothed and nursed back to health. For weeks and even to this day the brave people of Roumania are being cared for in countless numbers by our own Red Cross.

So was Roumania helped, and when history records how this last fragment of a sturdy nation was kept out of the hands of the terrible Huns it will give the victory to your American Red Cross.

ENLIGHTENED GERMANY

Soldiers Think They Are Fighting Against Napoleon.

Declaring that the ordinary Prussian soldier is educationally unfit for democratic government, Prof. Ulrich Kahrsdt contributes to the Amsterdam Kreuz Zeitung an article on his studies of the mentality of Teuton troops at the front.

"I have for months interrogated soldiers on all four fronts," he says, "and have found that among the Rhinelanders, Bavarians and Silesians 10 per cent of the men do not even know the correct title of the German emperor. In the summer of 1915, 5 per cent of our men did not know what powers were at war, while to this day 3 per cent are ignorant of the fact that we are at war with Japan."

"In practically every regiment I have found noncommissioned officers who thought we were fighting against the French Emperor Napoleon. Sixty per cent of our men do not know the name of their chief of staff, and 40 per cent are unable to answer the question whether the Carpathians lie on our eastern or western front."

Even the fellow who spouts hot air has to buy coal, just the same.

HUMORS IN SPRING

Such as Pimples, Boils, Eruptions—and Weakness, Languor, Debility Afflict thousands of people and seem to demand the use of a Spring course of treatment without delay.

The very best medicine to take now is Hood's Sarsaparilla, which thoroughly cleanses the blood and effects radical and permanent relief by perfecting the processes of absorption and elimination—giving healthy activity to the stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels and skin.

This good medicine purifies, enriches and revitalizes the blood in its own peculiar and unequalled way. It promptly relieves rheumatism, scrofulous troubles and eczema, regulates the kidneys and liver. It originated in a Boston physician's successful prescription, and enjoys high reputation as a satisfactory all-around family medicine. Accept no substitute, but insist on having Hood's Sarsaparilla, and get it today. It will do you good.—Adv.

A SAFE PLACE TO TRADE

A Remarkable Sale of Suits & Coats

Including Our Own Regular Stocks and the Surplus Garments of the Landesman, Hirschheimer Company, Manufacturers of High Grade Tailored Coats and Suits

Save Now From $\frac{1}{3}$ To $\frac{1}{2}$

The Landesman, Hirschheimer Co. is recognized throughout the garment industry as the largest and finest producers of Ladies' and Misses' Coats and Suits. Their garments are equal to any that are custom made, as every garment is entirely made by a skilled tailor, the greater part of it being hand-tailored. Factories which turn out cheaper garments work on the piece system, that is to say, that each part of a coat or suit is made by a different person. You can readily sense the disadvantage of this, as the work is not uniform and there is absolutely no individuality to the finished garment.

This sale will include our own regular stocks, the greater part of which was manufactured by the Landesman, Hirschheimer Co., and a portion of their surplus stocks, which just arrived this week. If you are looking for a really high grade coat or suit, fashioned from the most desirable materials and possessing the very newest style features, see these regular $18.75 to $35.00 garments on sale now at Sewing Machines in Arabia.

The sale of sewing machines in Arabia has increased since the war begun, owing in part to the demand of Red Cross organizations. A recent shipment of 600 American machines, according to a correspondent, will be disposed of as follows: One hundred in Aden, 200 in Abyssinia, 100 in Red Sea ports and 200 in the Persian Gulf district. There is also an increased demand on the part of the natives. Germany formerly supplied the territory with cheap machines, but the stocks of these are low, and American products now lead. Foot-power sewing machines are in growing preference over the hand-operated type, but electrically-driven machines cannot be sold, as there is no general electric service plant in Aden. Dust and rust are difficulties experienced in the use of the machines in the Arabian climate.

Tremendous Speed.

Fulminate of mercury, which is used as the original detonating charge in torpedoes, expands at a furious rate. A writer in the Illustrated World makes a comparison between this rate of expansion and an express train traveling at the rate of 60 miles an hour.

"Imagine," he says, "24,000 feet a second—instead of the 80 feet a second made by a mile-a-minute train—and you will know why fulminate of mercury going off in your hand will carry a finger with it and yet not burn your coat." That is the ultimate in speed.

THERE'S A REASON

Compare Your Baby's
First Four Years
With This

In 1913 little Marie was born in a village not far from Metz, in the Ardennes.

In 1914 Marie's father, called to the colors, fell at the Marne. And Marie and her mother stayed in the village, which was now in the Germans' hands.

In 1915 a poster was posted up on the door of the village church, and that night Marie's mother vanished, along with a score or more of other women.

In 1916 Marie was still living in that village—existing through the charity of the few elderly folk the Germans permitted to stay.

In 1917 Marie, with all the children under fourteen years and all the old people left alive in the village, was bundled into a crowded car and shipped into Germany, round through Switzerland and thence into France, arriving at Evian. She was underfed, of course, emaciated, sickly, dirty, too lightly dressed for the time of year. And she came into Evian with not a relative, not a friend left in all France to take care of her.

Who took her? Your Red Cross! Over there in Evian your Red Cross took charge of her, cared for her in the Red Cross Children's Hospital, clothed her, fed her, built up her strength, taught her to play—and then helped the French authorities find her a HOME.

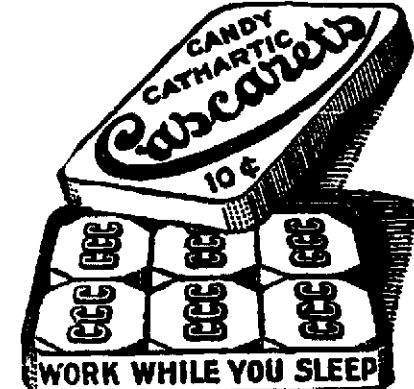

Multiply Marie by 500 and you will have some idea of just one day's work your Red Cross does at Evian. It is only one of the Red Cross activities in France, to be sure—but for just that one alone can you help being proud of it? Can you help being glad you are a member of it, supporting its great work of humanity? Can you help wanting it to go on helping the Maries and the "grand-daddies" that come in at Evian?

Fight and the world fights with you; shirk and you shirk the Liberty loan.

TO ELIMINATE GERMAN.
Oxford, May 9.—At a meeting of the village board of education held yesterday, it was unanimously decided to discontinue the study of German at the close of the current year.

High Morale.

Henry Van Dyke, the former minister to the Netherlands, said at the New York Authors' club the other day: "The morale of all the allied soldiers is always excellent. They joke about their wounds."

"I met a wounded young American aviator from the Escadrille Lafayette at a tea. He sat in a bath chair, with his legs propped straight out, and his two crutches at his side. 'How is the leg coming on?' I said. 'Well, anyhow,' he laughed, 'it isn't coming off.'"

What He Lost.
Mrs. Flatbush—So your husband has enlisted for the war?
Mrs. Bensonhurst—Oh, yes. I thought it was his duty.
"Oh, well, he'll not lose anything by it."

ONLY HUMAN BEINGS CRUEL

Proud Man the Sole Living Creature Capable of Deliberately Inflicting Suffering on Others.

A cruel person is one who exults in the pain, mental or bodily, suffered by another. Cruelty has its basis in anger (and thus is related to the combative instinct), though there is a cold-blooded form of cruelty which may be enjoyed without any obtrusive feeling of anger, Henry Campbell writes in the Lancet, London.

Cruelty, implying as it does self-consciousness—the ability to realize the feelings of others—is essentially a human attribute. Children who impale frogs and eviscerate flies cannot be said to be cruel, for they know not what they do. Nor are the lower animals cruel, seeing that they are wholly unconscious of the sufferings of others. Thus the charge of cruelty against the carnivora is unjust. These animals generally destroy their victims outright and in the rare cases (e. g., cat and mouse) where they prolong the suffering they have no knowledge of the pain they are causing. When, therefore, we stigmatize the conduct of the cruel man as "brutal" we wrong the brutes.

The animal which attacks another, and in so doing causes pain, merely responds to a blind, unthinking instinct; but man, proud man, who looks before and after, is able to realize and take pleasure in the pain he deliberately, and by subtle means maybe, sets out to cause. It is clearly absurd to speak of his conduct as "brutal." Rather should we call it devilish, the devil usually being credited with a goodly share of intelligence. We must cease to libel the brutes by designating the basest acts of man as brutal. As a matter of fact, they cannot be charged with nonmoral conduct, seeing that they are devoid of self-consciousness.

CURE FOR LITTLE AILMENTS

Real Trouble Can Usually Be Depended On to Make One Forget the Smaller Ones.

Man and animals alike, it's wonderful what a shock will do to heal our errors and our weaknesses. The only thing that ever stopped Uncle Bill in an argument was a disspan, or some heavy, blunt instrument clouted over his brow, and in his younger days he was some arguer, as his scars attest. Here is the case of the blind man in San Rafael, Cal., who fell 40 feet off the roof of his house, and found his eyesight restored; Aunt Ellen, who was bedridden for years, was the first person to reach safety when the house caught fire, and her bad hip has been practically all right ever since; you remember that crippled negro who beat even the dogs home when the bear charged out of the brush.

A lot of us have troubles that are only in our minds; when we are fed a little real trouble we forget the smaller ones. There is, perhaps, an opening for a sanitarium that will take a cripple or an invalid and throw him off a cliff, or crack him over the head with a brick or a crowbar—anything to wake him up, make him forget his small worries, and heal his diseased mind.

"Because—"

Jelly has been busy with riddles. "Now!" she cried, and held up for public inspection the legend, "Why did the orange ice cream?" printed in large letters. "Because it saw the sausage roll under the table," said Elfrida. "My own is much better," announced Jelly, evidently bursting to declare it. She was cordially urged to do so. "Because it saw the lemon sponge on the dumb waiter," she proclaimed triumphantly. "Quite nice and cool," said Janet approvingly. "The vista of possibilities you open up!" murmured Peter. "For instance, it might have seen the banana trifle with the malds of honor. Or the gooseberry fool with the nuts from Brazil. All very painful to an orange of really nice feeling. But I like your dumb waiter."—"All the Joneses," by Beatrice Kelston.

Make Pets of Hornbills.

The yellow hornbill, one of the most interesting of the species, is a comparatively fearless bird and is easily tamed. The male is fond of perching on the treetops of tropical trees and making a noise like a young puppy. The natives in Africa find young hornbills easily tamed. They dig the birds out of the tree nests when quite young and raise them on milk and berries in their huts. When grown the hornbill remains attached to its foster parents and will eat out of the same dishes. Left free, the hornbill comes and goes much as does a pet crow and remains about the hut until the first mating season, when it goes away with one of its kind, rarely to return.

Oriental Statecraft.

The part which gesture plays in Oriental drama is set forth in a recent Hindu volume, which says that there is a fitting gesture to represent every emotion. The gesture, in fact, is described as deaf-and-dumb alphabet of the soul. There are nine movements of the head, corresponding to nine emotions, mentioned by one authority, 24 by another; 28 movements of the single hands, and 24 or 26 of the double hands, etc.; also "hands" denoting animals, trees, oceans, and other things. For example, a certain position of the hands denotes a certain emperor, caste, or planet. The translator says rather naively that only a cultivated audience can appreciate Indian "actor's art."

The German casualties demonstrate the high cost of driving.

lumbus, O. (Previously reported missing).
LIVED IN LEROY STREET.
In the announcement of the casualty list made public by Washington today is found the name of Burl W. Mansberger, of Newark, who is designated as being slightly wounded.
Private Mansberger, aged 22, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Newton Mansberger, of 241 Leroy street.
He enlisted with company D, fourth Ohio regiment of the national guard, which was later made the 166th regiment of infantry and was a part of the rainbow division. The company left Newark in July going to Columbus where they were in camp but a short time when they were transferred to Camp Perry and then to Camp Mills, L. I.
He went to France with the division and has been seeing action in the trenches. The family received official notification on Wednesday evening of his injury.

ASKS DAMAGE FOR WINDOW BROKEN BY JOHNSON'S HORSE

A petition was filed today in common pleas court by Justin Gleichauf against Fontaine Johnson, Grace F. Fleck Kennedy and Alice G. Fleck Miller, stating that on or about September 20, 1917, an employee of the defendant—Johnson—was driving a horse in West Main street, near the storeroom, owned by the other defendants, and occupied by the plaintiff, who is engaged in the furniture business, and carelessly drove his horse in such a manner that the same collided with and broke the front plateglass window of the said store. By reason of the prominence of the show-window the plaintiff made sales from the exhibition and advertising of his furniture, which was visible to pedestrians passing over and along West Main street.
The plaintiff was obliged to enclose the front part of his store with boards thereby rendering the furniture invisible from the street from September 29, 1917, to March 15, 1918, when the glass was replaced. During part of this time the weather was such that the temperature of the store was near zero and the plaintiff was unable to heat the store on account of the absence of the glass. The plaintiff alleges that by reason of the loss of time of the employees and loss of sales he was damaged in the sum of $2327.50, and by reason of the negligence of the defendant—Johnson—he was damaged in the sum of $1500, for which amount he seeks judgment, with interest from March 15, 1918.

FOUR NEWARK MEN WILL BE TRAINED FOR MECHANICIANS

Under call 212, the local draft board is to furnish four mechanics to be sent to Vaiparaiso (Ind.) University for special training along mechanical lines. This course of training will be for about three months and will be given at government expense. The men will leave Newark on May 16, and the list will be made up entirely of volunteers to be announced later. Under call 262, one cook is to be sent to Fort Benjamin Harrison on about the same date.
A special call was issued today to the various draft boards over the state calling for 127 men to be inducted into the signal, engineer and quartermaster corps. The date of enlistment for this call was not stated, but will probably be the latter part of the month.

Mr. William Thompson was in Lancaster Wednesday on business.
A man and his wife while headed toward home had the misfortune to collide with a telephone pole a mile west of town with sufficient force to break the pole in two and move it a foot at the base. The Ford roadster was badly wrecked and the occupants severely wounded. The man was badly hurt in the face and his wife seriously injured about her head. The parties were brought to a doctor here and then taken by relatives to their home in Thornville.

THRIFT

Here is a little essay on "Thrift," written by Benzi Lawyer, in the fourth grade of the Gratiot school:
A man had $1 once and he was solving out the problem what he should do with it. He finally said: "This quarter I shall put it in the bank; with this one I shall buy flower seed and make out in a slot-machine and draw more money, and with the last one I shall buy a Thrift stamp." Now the bank has broke up, and the flower seed wouldn't grow, and he lost with the slot-machine. But for the Thrift stamp, he got his quarter back and interest, besides. "Oh, dear," said he, "if I only would have put all of it in on Thrift stamps."
Meaning "Think before you do."

CANNOT SECURE STREET CAR RAILS FOR RESURFACING

A meeting was held last night at 7:30 o'clock in the city council rooms, when Chief Engineer Sunbury of the Ohio Electric Railway, a representative of the Federal Asphalt Co., met the city officials to discuss the matter of the resurfacing of East Main street. The asphalt company has been ready to start the contract since it was signed in 1915 but on account of the inability of the railway company to secure steel rails have been unable to begin the work. The railway company claimed, and have evidence to support it, that the yhave been unable to get the rails because of the government taking over the entire output. Mr. Sunbury stated that they would be willing to pay any price, even double the market price, if anyone could procure them for they have been unable to do so.

A motion was made by the council authorizing Solicitor Henry Ashcraft to write the Highway Department, Washington, D. C., to see if they could give some relief in the matter of supplying the rails for East Main street on the grounds that the street is a main market road for the eastern part of the country. Suggestions were made to pave a part of the street but Engineer Wells stated that this would be very unsatisfactory.

The proposition as it stands today is that the city, the asphalt company and the railway company are all ready and anxious to do the work but are handicapped by the inability of the railway company to secure the rails.

HUNS HAVE STARTED

ANOTHER BIG OFFENSIVE ON THE FLANDERS FRONT

Four more German machines were brought down at other points. Bad weather prevails on the American sector in France. Northwest of Toul an American patrol has been ambushed by the Germans. In this sector also American heavy artillery has been in action for the first time. Near Montdidier in Picardy the American gunners continue their harassing fire against the Germans. The American army is growing rapidly in strength. Although refusing to divulge the exact number of men who have gone overseas Secretary of War

Baker announces that more than 500,000 men are now in France.

On the Italian front rains put a stop to lively artillery and patrol engagements. The British forces advancing northward from Bagdad in Mesopotamia, have captured Kerkuk, 150 miles north of Bagdad and 80 miles southeast of Mosul, the objective of the drive. Six hundred wounded Turks were taken.

ODD FELLOWS TO HAVE WAR GARDEN IN WEST NEWARK

The big war garden of the Odd Fellows was launched today and every bit of the work will be done by the lodge members. The lodge is planting three acres of potatoes this afternoon and later will put in two acres of beans.

The war garden is located on the Scheidler farm, and the keenest rivalry is being shown among the members for the success of the venture. The lodge is divided into two teams of fifteen men each and each team has a captain. The captains are Charles A. Spees and John W. Wilson. When there is work to be done the captains will call upon the team members and the amount of work and hours put in will be kept account of and the team that falls down on the work will banquet the winning team. The potatoes were entirely donated by the lodge members and are being put in the ground this afternoon.

DOG ROUTS BANDITS

Saves a Woman's Life and Protects $3,000.

Nero, a big St. Bernard dog, the other night saved $3,000 for his owner, Mrs. Eugenia Graf, by fighting off four bandits who held up her saloon in Chicago.

Mrs. Graf had the money to cash checks for stockyard employees. She was in a room back of the bar counting out money for a check when the bandits entered. Each of the men carried a revolver. One covered the two bartenders and several customers in the barroom. A second robber ran behind the bar and opened the cash register.

Mrs. Graf saw the bandits coming in time to slam the door and turn the key. She gathered up her money and fled through a back door. The robbers fired two shots through the door and kicked it in just as Mrs. Graf vanished from the room. The men sprang after her and Nero attacked them.

The robbers fired four shots at the dog, but he drove them back into the barroom and ran behind the bar to attack the man at the cash register. The bandit leaped over the bar and ran, followed by his companions.

NOT ALL AT ONCE

Farmer Forty-Eight Years Old and Wife of Forty-Four, Have 15 Children.

Peter Anderson, a farmer of the township of Bygland, in Polk county, Minn., owns a 7-passenger auto, which, even when loaded to normal capacity, only carries about one-third of his family. Another seven-passenger car and a four-seater are needed by him if no one is to be left at home.

Anderson is the father of 16 living children. The youngest, a daughter, arrived last week and has been christened Marie. There have been 18 children in all, but two are dead. The oldest, a son, was twenty-one on June 30 last. There are no twins or triplets in the family. The mother was forty-four years old on January 25, 1918. The father is forty-eight years old. Anderson has 237 acres of land, worth $100 an acre, and can do all his farming without help from outside of the family circle.

FERTILIZER ACCUMULATES

Congested Transportation Facilities in East Responsible.

A loss of 5,000,000 bushels of wheat and other grains faces the nation's crop next season unless huge amounts of fertilizers are moved from the Atlantic seaboard at once.

Due to congested transportation facilities vast amounts of the fertilizer have accumulated. At one plant near here 60,000 tons of acid phosphate await shipment. This must be moved before more can be made, and unless some of it is shipped at once the plant will have to close for lack of storage space.

The raids were made at the request of the federal authorities endeavoring to round up all military slackers.

Be Sure of Your Ground.

Do not talk but of what you know; do not think but of what you have materials to think justly upon; and do not look for things only that you like, when there are others to be seen—this is the lesson to be taught to our youth, and inbred in them; and that mainly by our own example and confidence. WILSON HAWKINS.

The Ohio State Journal pays a compliment to Newark's school superintendent, Wilson Hawkins, this morning, declaring that under Superintendent Hawkins' influence the Newark school have become among the best in the state. The Journal also states:

"Superintendent Wilson Hawkins of the Newark schools has been elected superintendent of the Canton schools, for four years, at $4000 a year. When Mr. Shawan resigned some two years ago we suggested to some in authority that Mr. Hawkins would make a fine successor. But now Canton has found it out for itself, and it is to be congratulated. The people of Newark tried to get Mr. Hawkins to stay, even sending a committee of the Chamber of Commerce to intercede for that purpose, but Mr. Hawkins had given his word and it was of no use to try to get him to remain."

Our public schools have indeed made great progress under Mr. Hawkins' direction. The fact that the school teachers, the Chamber of Commerce, and the Rotary club all unanimously petitioned the school board to try to keep Mr. Hawkins in Newark, and the further fact that the board of education offered Mr. Hawkins a salary greater than that offered by the Canton schools clearly indicate that the splendid record he has made here is appreciated. Mr. Hawkins has taken a great interest in civic affairs and has been active in every movement for the betterment of the community. He has given freely of his time and money for every good cause. In fact, Wilson Hawkins is not only a good school executive but he is a good citizen in every respect. He has done good work in Newark and Canton is to be congratulated upon securing him to direct the public schools of that city.

WORKINGMAN'S PARADISE.

German propaganda has always dwelt upon the lovely paternal policy of the kaiser's government, and its watchful care for the happiness and welfare of its people. We have heard much about their social insurance like old-age pensions. Recent figures show that average wages in Germany before the war among the wood-workers, a typical industry, were $5.99 a week. Their old-age pensions ran from $18.58 to $43.45 per year. The federal farm loan banks were useful only to the reasonably comfortable middle class farmers.

Working hours in Germany average much longer than ours. Mighty few of our working people would change conditions here for those in kaiserdom. Yet so skillful and far-reaching has German publicity stuff been that most people thought the kaiser had gone far beyond our country in his careful insurance against poverty. It all goes to prove the value of advertising, but as in other fields of business, the advertiser has to back up his goods.

Cutting out the study of German in the lower schools is all right, but we want enough people in the country who can read it and find out what the pesky critters are up to.

It's job or jail for loafers in several states now—including Ohio. Some people will, of course, spend considerable time in going from one job to another.

Another one of those "acid tests" we read about is eating Mrs. Newby's rhubarb pie.

POPULARIZING POTATOES.

Last year when potatoes were selling for $1.25 a peck, there was no need of any effort for popularizing them. Everyone longed for them, and thought of the delicious French fried or variously seasoned concoctions that we would make of them. But with a great reserve stock of potatoes on hand this year, some of us have forgotten how good they were.

Years ago in simpler times, a boy turned up at school one morning in a conversational frame of mind. "Had an awful good breakfast this morning," he remarked to the teacher. "What did you have?" she asked, sympathetically.

"We had 'taters—and 'taters—and 'taters," he stuttered. Those potatoes, which the skillful art of his mother had made attractive, filled his hungry little stomach with satisfaction. Nowadays we would call it a poor breakfast. But the old-timers would often have been glad to get it. The food experts tell us a good sized potato has as much nourishment as two slices of bread.

Germany is fighting this war largely on potatoes as a dietary basis, with assistance from dried vegetables. When we read that the Germans were having to use potato flour, we gloated over their hard-pressed condition, and thought they would soon have to give up.

Now the food conservators come along and make the very most delicious kind of cake out of potato flour. They show you this finely-ground flour, and it looks as light and white as the fluffiest wheat product the Dakota fields ever turned out. Potatoes are one of the world's greatest staples. At their present price we have no right to growl about cost of living until we have made liberal use of them.

STUDY OF GERMAN.

In considering the agitation for dropping the study of German in our schools and colleges, several discriminations should be made. One fatal objection to this study as now conducted in many places, is that the German textbooks are simply a part of the propaganda game. The German emperor and his system are glorified in these books. That kind of textbook must go.

Furthermore, we want no more of those isolated communities that are as German as a suburb of Berlin. It is time to make our language the universal tongue in this country.

It would be perfectly possible to make up textbooks with selections drawn from the older German writers, that would convey no suggestions of the wickedness of modern German autocracy. At the time the pioneers of German migration came over here, the great German thinkers were liberals.

But while such a textbook would contain many noble thoughts, yet it would give a false impression of modern German spirit. Germany has had a new birth downward since the days of Goethe and Schiller. The study of this tongue for the ordinary run of young people is of very dubious value.

We must keep it strictly in mind that the Germans have shown a marvelous capacity. Our technical men need to be familiar with the results of their science. Our business men need to know what the Germans are up to in their commercial plans. A great number from these classes should be able to read German freely, so as to follow their progress, forecast their competition, and foresee their aggression.

We can't ignore the Germans. The worse they behave the more we need to watch them. But this task of keeping in touch with their life should not be given to immature minds that could be deceived by camouflage.

FORESEEING ARMY NEEDS.

Resolutions have been introduced in congress by members of both parties providing for a large increase in the size of the army. The colossal fighting in France is opening the eyes of our people. We can now see that the war cannot be ended by talk.

At no stage of the war have our people looked ahead with intelligent foresight. We have kept underestimating the demands we have to meet. When the demands came, we were not ready.

Germany is now splendidly provided with artillery, captured on the Russian, Italian and British fronts, besides her own guns. She cannot keep up the present rate of the present offensive very long. But she can dig in, erect terrifically strong defenses by the labor of Belgian and other slaves contrary to international law, and hold us off for years.

To break through the German trench-line, a two-to-one force will probably be required. We are assembling a great new army at the cantonments, and will have the men ready to send over before many months. It seems probable that 3,000,000 men will be needed. And very likely it may take 5,000,000.

It will be a great deal cheaper, in both lives and money, to take hold of this thing as if we meant business, rather than let the war drag along four or five years. With a powerful force we should be able to finish the thing in a few short, swift strokes. With a force only half adequate, we cannot see the end of it for years.

GENERAL PENSION BILLS.

The national house of representatives on Monday passed the Sherwood pension bill increasing all Civil war pensions. The minimum pension is $25 and maximum pension $50, with an average increase of over 30 per cent. The house also passed the Ashbrook bill amending the widow's pension law to include widows who have contracted more than one marriage.

It was surely Ohio day for pensions with General Sherwood and Congressman Ashbrook as authors of the bills and in charge of the debate attending the passage of the measures.

LIVING BY LOAFING.

(Ohio State Journal.) Governor Cox is devoting some of his attention to the suppression of much of the loafing that is afflicting the state and nation. Every man and woman owes a service to society and the state and he cannot render it unless he in some way works it out. Whenever a person is born into the world he brings with him an obligation to do something for the world, and that something must be done by some sort of work by the head and the hands. And it belongs to the government to see that the obligation is paid. It is not treating the general citizenship right unless it is paid. No man has a right to eat the bread produced by another man's sweat. Insisting that he may is what causes nine-tenths of the social disorders. The movement against loafing is like any other action started to collect a debt. It is purely an act of justice. And those who are chosen to serve society obligate themselves to see that loafing as a business is not allowed. We should all stand by the governor in his efforts to get rid of so much loafing.

Even the soldier should mind his own business. No man ever gets any medals for being a meddler.

The Long Arm of Mercy
By DR. FRANK CRANE

The Red Cross is the Long Arm of Mercy.
It is the Kindness of Mankind—organized.
In Man is an Angel and a Devil, a Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde. The Red Cross is the Good, aroused, energized to thwart the Bad.

It is the best antidote we know to the bane of war.
There are other Charities, more or less helpful. The Red Cross is the mightiest of all Charities, the Love and Pity of all men made supremely efficient.

If, as Emerson said, "sensible men and conscientious men all over the world are of one religion," this is the expression of that religion.

The Red Cross is Humanity united in Service.
It asks no man's opinion; only his need.

Black or White, Friend or Foe, to the Red Cross there is no difference; it only asks: "Who is Suffering?" And to him it goes.

The Red Cross is so Efficient that Governments recognize it; so Pure in its purpose that whoever wishes well his fellow men, desires to help it; so Clean in its administration that the most suspicious can find no fault in it.

The Red Cross not only seeks to alleviate the cruelties of War; it is the expression of those human sentiments that some day will put an end to War.

It is the impulse of Love, striving to overcome the impulse of Hate.

It is Mercy's co-operation struggling against War's rivalries.

It is the one Society in which every Man, Woman and Child should be enrolled; for it knows no sects, no prejudices, no protesting opinion; the human being does not live that does not feel that the starving should be fed, the sick tended and the wounded healed.

Majestic and divine is this Long Arm of Mercy; it finds the fallen on the battlefield, it brings the nurse and the physician to the victim in the hospital; it leads the weeping orphan to a home; it feeds the starving, cares for the pest-smitten whom all others abandon, and pours the oil of Help and Pity into the bitter wounds of the World.

Where a volcano has wrought desolation in Japan, or a Flood in China, or a Hurricane in Cuba, or a Famine in India, or a Plague in Italy, or ravaging Armies in Poland, Serbia or Belgium, there flies the Red Cross, the Angel of God whom the fury of men cannot banish from the Earth; and to the Ends of the Earth, over all the ways of the Seven Seas, wherever is Human Misery, there is extended, to bless and to heal, its Long Arm of Mercy.

AN AIRCRAFT INQUIRY.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.) The action of the president in asking the department of justice to make a thorough investigation into the aircraft production activities of the war department should soon bring to a head the whole mass of rumors, accusations and suspicions that have so long festered in the national capital.

There have been enough investigations by organizations or individuals with incomplete authority. It is time now for the government itself to step in, ascertain the truth and either set in motion the punishment of the guilty or give anyone under suspicion a clean bill.

The conclusions of the Aeronautical society, taking to task the secretary in reference to aircraft production, are still fresh in mind. The status of war for statements made by him or the sculptor Gutzon Borglum as an investigator is not entirely clear, though his accusations are not lacking in fervor. Evidently the president attaches sufficient importance to the accumulated charges to order a real official inquiry.

Congress was extremely liberal with its appropriations for building planes for service in Europe. In contrast with its attitude upon many war proposals, it was ready to grant the money asked for in this case without hesitation or unnecessary debate. It recognized at once the immense contribution America might make to the cause of the democratic allies by seizing control of the air above the fighting lines in France and Belgium.

If half the charges are true, however, there has been much more said than done toward winning control of the air with machines financed by congressional appropriations. There has been much of promise and too little of achievement.

This does not mean, of course, that there has been either graft or profiteering in aircraft production. Taken in connection with current charges and suspicions, it does justify a searching investigation such as the department of justice is capable of conducting. It will tend to clarify opinion concerning an important branch of the nation's war activities, and to hasten the day when America may in fact make itself felt in the air.

America has been fortunate in the freedom from even the suggestion of crookedness or profiteering in the vast field of production for war purposes. The circumstance makes it the more important that in the present case every energy be exerted to uncover the truth.

No, Maude, dear; we very much doubt if even the soldier suffering from toothache would welcome a gas attack.

"Fishin' Don't Mount to Shucks No More, Since Bobby Went Away!"

SEN. NELSON'S POSITION.

(Minneapolis Tribune.)

The re-election of Knute Nelson to the senate next November will be, in one sense, a perfunctory political performance. In another sense it will be a head and heart tribute to a rare sort of the probity, the good hard sense, the intellectual grasp and the sterling devotion to country of a great American.

Senator Nelson has fought hard for the principles of the Republican party during a long political life, but he has fought for these things so fairly and so much in the open as to win and hold the respect of men of all party affiliations. It would be a calamity if political cleavages based on varying adherence to domestic policies were wiped out, but it so happens that these policies, whether Republican, Democratic or what-not, are of minor interest now compared with the one great issue—the fighting and winning of the war.

On that great issue Senator Nelson's record has been so uniformly right and consistent and courageous as to win the applause of high-minded men of all parties. That is the expressed sense of the executive committee of the Democratic party in Minnesota, that that party should join with Senator Nelson's own party in sending the veteran statesman back to Washington. The committee realizes that his services are needed in the capital in this national crisis, and it is greatly to its credit that it thus acts on "broad, patriotic American citizenship," to use the words of its own resolution of indorsement.

No man in any party who may file for the senatorial nomination could hope to gain more than a bit of questionable notoriety in contesting with Senator Nelson. To make even the semblance of an issue on which to predicate his candidacy he would be forced to a position that either would smack of poor Americanism or land him in a field of discussion which is virtually barren of public interest at this time.

COST OF NATION'S MADNESS

(Leslie's.)

Representative Frederick C. Hicks of New York, has compiled figures on the cost of the war. These show the combined expense on both sides during the first three years amounted to $38,500,000,000, and that this vast sum will be increased to $160,000,000,000 if the war continues until August 1, 1918. This means that the entire cost of the American Civil war is being duplicated every 35 days, and that the cost of the Franco-Prussian war is equalled every five weeks. Reduced to comparison, this enormous sum of money is more than enough to build a railroad long enough to encircle the earth at the equator 32 times. It would purchase 2,360,000,000 low-priced automobiles. If put into one-dollar bills, placed end to end, it would make a chain of greenbacks that could reach around the world 157 times. Four years of the present war will cost more than seven times as much as the total direct cost of the six greatest wars in the 125 years previous to August, 1914, although only one of these wars lasted 21 years. It is more costing the United States more than $50,000,000 a day, and that figure will be tremendously increased before the end of this year. These amazing statistics give an illustration of what civilization must pay as the price of Germany's madness.

Did You Know

That perhaps the first known inhabitants of Northern Britain were the Picts? They were a Celtic race inhabiting the northeastern part of Scotland, and are probably the Celtic or barbarous than the soldiers of the allies. Don't get it into your mind that the atrocities committed in Belgium and France were the work of irresponsible soldiers and committed without the sanction of the German officials.

Whenever you hear anyone talking about the reports of the atrocities being lies just set him down either as a pro-German or a fool. For nobody but a pro-German or a fool would doubt the evidence that we have from those who were in position to know the facts. Take Brand Whitlock's statement, as an illustration. He was the American minister to Belgium when the war broke out. He was on the scene. And here is just one thing which he says about the barbarism of the Germans:

"The prisoners were massed to gether, nearly ninety of them—old men and young, girls and boys, little children and babies in their mothers' arms. A platoon was called up, the colonel in command gave the word to domans of the Roman writers. The Pictish territory extended along the whole sea-coast from the Fifth of Forth to the Pentland Firth. The Pictish nation consisted of two divisions, called the North and South Picts, the boundary between them being the mountain range known as the Grampians. Many rude underground buildings in Scotland are known as Picts' houses.

Thrift Stamp.

Breathes there a man with soul so dead,
Who never to himself has said,
"I'll buy a Thrift stamp every hour,
Because it makes the Kaiser sour."

I'll buy a Thrift stamp every day,
Because I know that it will pay.
I'll buy a Thrift stamp every month,
Because it makes the Kaiser jump.

I'll buy a Thrift stamp every night,
Because it helps our Allies fight.
I'll wear the button on my coat,
Because it gets the Kaiser hot.

fire and the gray soldiers in bold blood shot down those ninety persons as they stood huddled together. Among them were twelve children under the age of six; six of them were little babies whose mothers, as they stood up to face their pitiless murderers, held them in their arms."

Brand Whitlock's evidence would be accepted at its face value in any court of justice in any civilized country in the world. But we do not have to depend upon his evidence alone; there are tens of thousands of truthful people who are every day corroborating what Brand Whitlock says in the paragraph quoted above.

Tommy—"Pop, what does it mean to ship beef on the hoof?" Tommy—"It means to send it alive, my son." Tommy—"Then a cattle ship must have a pretty big steerage, mustn't it?"

The people who brood over their troubles must be anxious to hatch out more.

All Newark and Licking County Must Pull Together in Devoted Watchfulness Over Our Fighting Forces

We who cannot go "Over There" must fight with our money. What are a few paltry dollars compared with the lives, the sacrifice and privations of the boys in the trenches?

Calls for aid for the boys at the front have been coming ever since the war started. Our troops have just begun to get into actual fighting, yet the demands ---and the necessities---for money for relief work have been enormous. These will continue and grow in volume with the needs of our soldiers.

Funds have been solicited here for dozens of different relief organizations within the last twelve months, and Newark and Licking County have met every demand made upon them, more than subscribed their quota each time.

Farsighted, patriotic men have realized that the practice of putting on money-raising campaigns every few weeks, with the vast amount of labor and and time involved, must inevitably break down in time, and that it is imperative to organize and systematize the work of securing contributions for war relief purposes. This has been done in this way:

The Organization of The War Relief Chest

Under the direction of the Executive Committee of ten men of the highest standing in the city and county, working in conjunction with 500 War Workers, chosen from all classes of our citizenship, a plan has been worked out to do away with these repeated money-raising efforts, and to make it possible for every person in Newark and Licking county to subscribe ONCE for ALL to the war relief work of the next 12 months, to give wisely and systematically, and to be assured that every cent so subscribed should be used for legitimate, worthy war needs only and for no other purpose.

The Only Appeal For Aid For One Solid Year

$360,000 must be raised—$180,000 in Newark and $180,000 in the county—to take care of all war relief work for the next twelve months. This money will provide for ALL war relief activities, the best known of which are the Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., K. of C., Jewish War Relief and French and Belgian War Orphans. The money that you subscribe must provide comfort and cheer for our soldiers and for distressed humanity in battle-ravaged lands. Unless we do our full share this merciful work cannot be done. The Community War Relief Chest is the logical, sensible, practical way to raise this money.

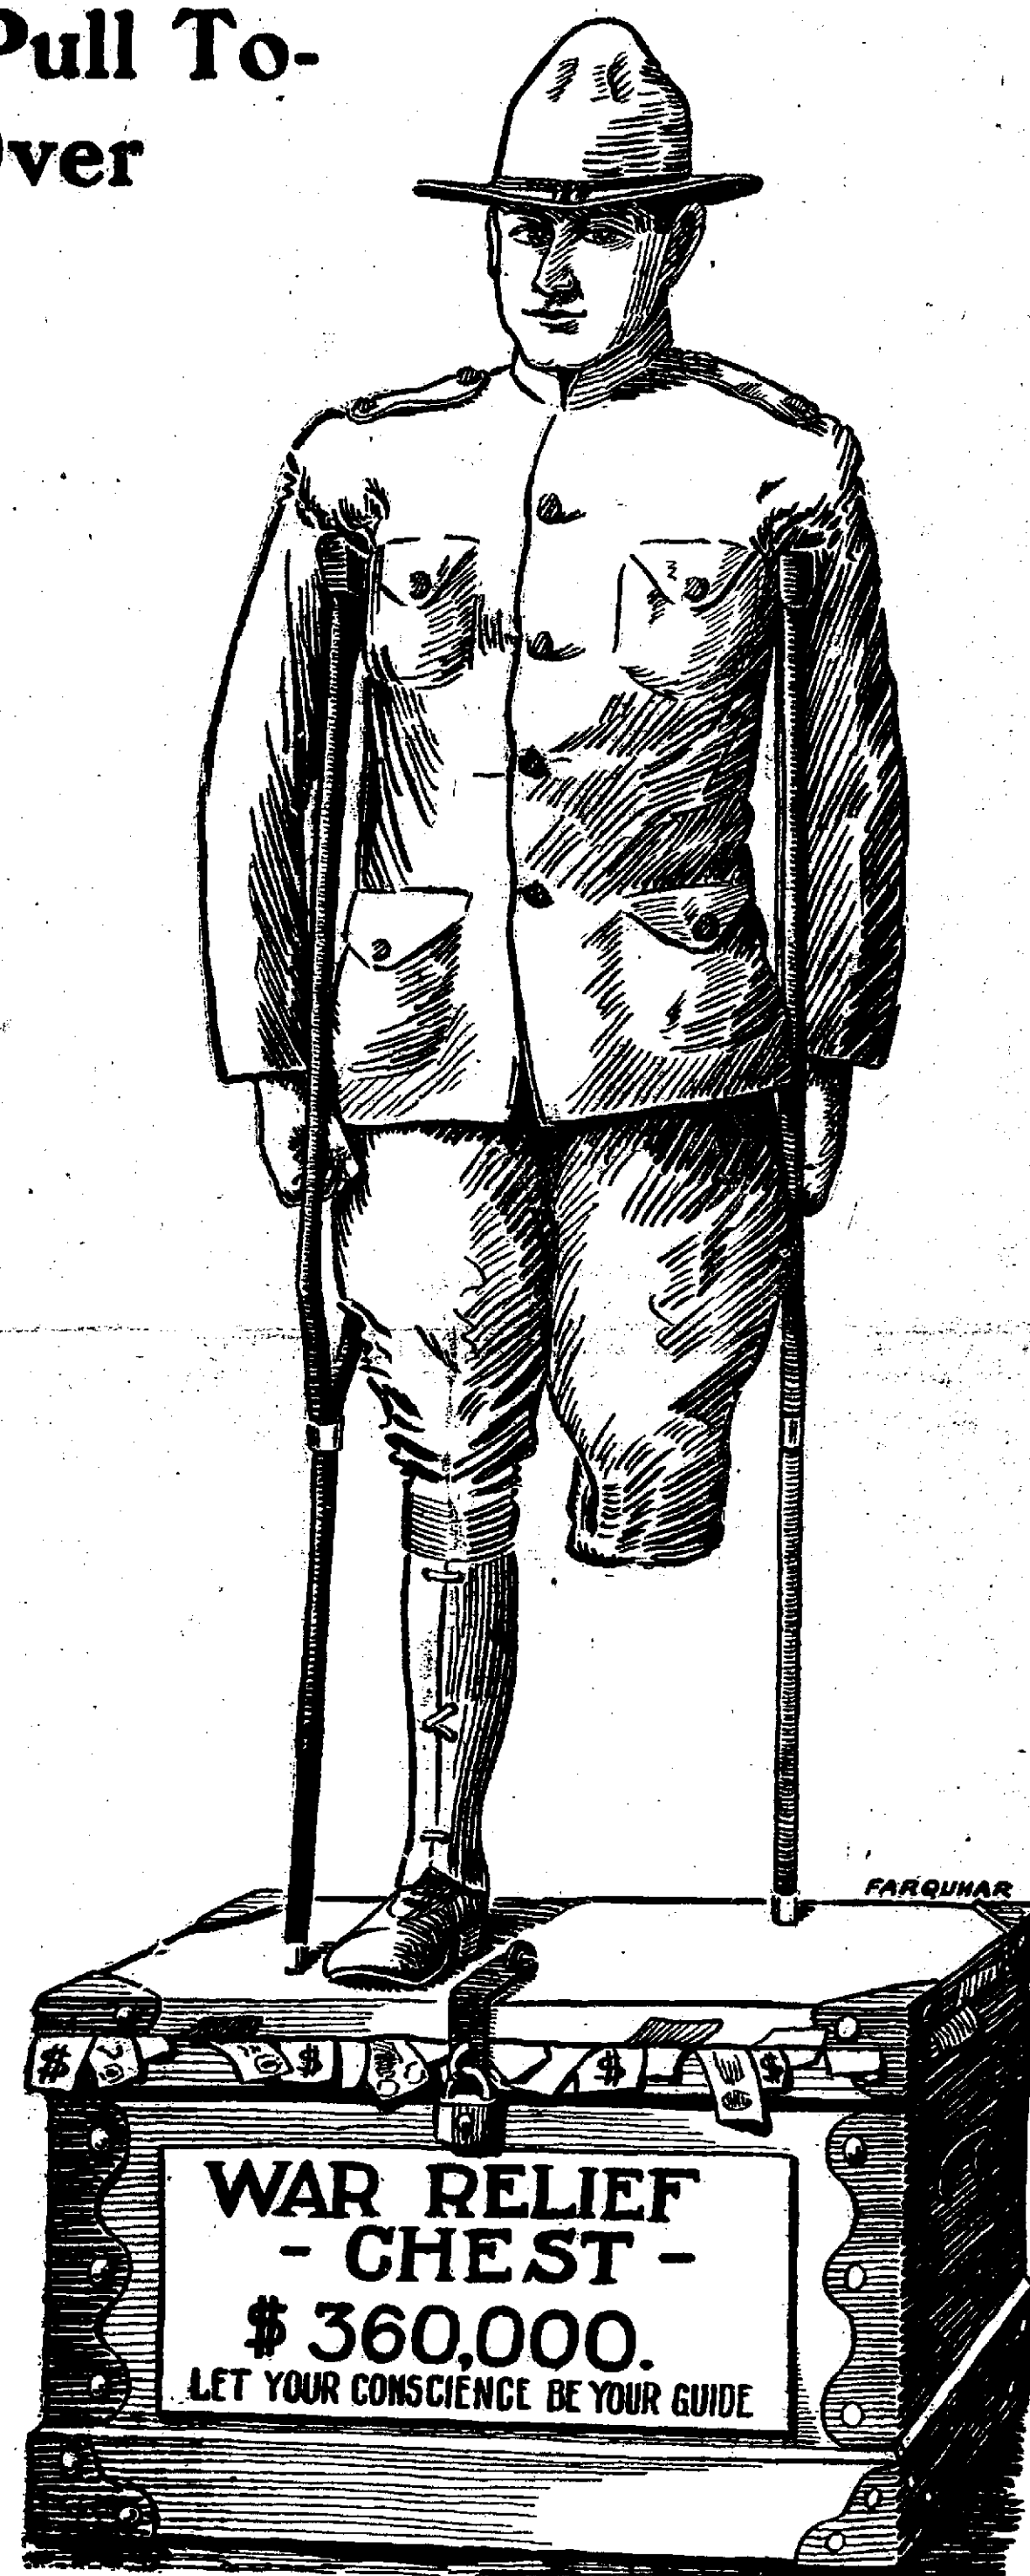

How This Fund Will Be Raised, Administered and Distributed

During the week of May 20th, the organization of 500 War Workers will be sent out to call on every man, woman and youth in Newark and Licking county, giving each an opportunity to subscribe a definite amount of money to be paid, either in a lump sum, or by monthly payments, this amount to constitute that person's total contribution for war relief for the next twelve months.

All the money raised will be placed in a common fund or "War Relief Chest" from which will be paid sums as may be decided upon as Newark's and Licking county's fair quota to the various agencies engaged in the actual work of war relief. These payments will be made only by the authority of the full committee of ten and only after careful investigation of the needs of the applicants for aid.

No part of the money so subscribed will be used for overhead expense or any other than relief purposes, the necessary expenses of the campaign being cared for by a special fund already pledged.

While it is true that Newark and Licking county have over-subscribed every request that has been made for relief funds, it is also true that only about one person in eight of our people have given to these funds. The War Relief Chest should appeal to everybody—man, woman and youth. It will reach those who have not been reached in former campaigns, it will bring out every TRUE American's full support.

SUPT. HAWKINS IS OFFERED INCREASE TO REMAIN HERE

The regular meeting of the board of education was held last evening at 6:45 o'clock in the office of the superintendent of schools in the high school building. The meeting was called to order by President Wm. B. Miller, and the following members were present: C. L. Hatch, Seth Haight, Ben Montgomery and J. M. Mitchell.

The minutes of the last meeting were read by Clerk Montgomery and were approved and filed. The regular bill and salaries were allowed.

On a motion by Clerk Montgomery, seconded by Mr. Haight, the board voted to borrow $15,000 to take care of salaries and other debts. The salaries will amount to $10,000, two bonds are due, and other incidentals will use up the entire amount.

The board took up the matter of Superintendent Wilson Hawkins' election to the superintendency of the Canton schools, and after a short debate voted to increase his salary from $3000 to $4200 per year for the balance of his term of three years. The members stated that they were reluctant to let Mr. Hawkins go, but would not stand in his way if this meant an advancement to him. The salary offered by the Canton board was $4000, and offered him a much larger field as there are 12,000 children in the schools at that place. Mr. Hawkins will go to Canton to go over the grounds and will take the proposition of the Newark board under advisement as he has not accepted the superintendency of the Canton schools.

Two members of this year's class and two members of last year's class were recommended to be given diplomas with the present year class as they have joined the colors. The boys of this year's class are: Lester S. Handel, 43 Columbia street, and Carl Pryor, Central avenue, and of last year's class: Raymond Mort and Charles Hess.

Treasurer Officer Frank G. Handel made a report on the coal situation and stated that there were over 100 tons in the high school at the present time. William Soliday, coal dealer, was present, and stated that the board could get all the Shawnee coal that was needed. Mr. Handel said this was a good quality of coal, as they had used a considerable quantity of it during the past year in the various schools. No action was taken in this matter and the board adjourned.

CHINA SECURES BIG LOAN FROM JAPAN

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Peking, China, Friday, May 3.—A loan of 20,000,000 yen, secured by Chinese telegraph revenues, has been closed with Japanese bankers and the first installments are arriving. An additional loan of $20,000,000, secured by the Tsinan-Shuntze railway, is reported to have been concluded.

The newspapers are full of sensational gossip concerning the Chinese-Japanese negotiations, which are declared openly to be the means of Japanese domination in every sphere and the selling out of China for military and financial assistance.

There seems to be a solemn agreement on both sides to guard the negotiations with secrecy. Neither the foreign legations nor the press is able to learn anything definite. The negotiations are being carried on apparently by the military and naval commissions, headed by Generals Sato and Chin Yun Peng.

The foreign diplomats are said to look unfavorably upon any attempts at secrecy. Protests by central and southern governors and chambers of commerce are said to have caused a temporary hitch in the negotiations. This is also said to account for the visit of Baron Hayashi, the Japanese minister, to Yangtze provinces.
